

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

EXECUTIVE ORDER W-129-96

WHEREAS, The San Francisco State Building Authority is proceeding with the construction of a new office building for the State of California in the City of San Francisco at 455 Golden Gate along with the renovation and restoration of the State Building at 350 McAllister; and

WHEREAS, this will be a significant new state office building contributing to the civic center in San Francisco and consolidating State offices from throughout the San Francisco area; and

WHEREAS, it is traditional to name important public works and buildings after individuals who have made significant contributions of service to the State of California; and

WHEREAS, Hiram W. Johnson, as the 23rd Governor of the State of California and a long-time U.S. Senator, is considered one of our great leaders for his contributions to open and progressive government; and

WHEREAS, it is appropriate to honor Hiram W. Johnson and his achievements and contributions by naming the new state building at 455 Golden Gate in San Francisco after him;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, PETE WILSON, Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby issue this order to become effective immediately:

The new state office building at 455 Golden Gate in the City of San Francisco shall be known as the "Hiram W. Johnson State Office Building."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 10th day of January 1996.

Governor of California

ATTEST:

Secretary of State
